TEAM BUILDING

"I have known Paul for years on a personal level, but a few weeks ago I was able to engage with him on a professional level; my admiration for who he is and what he does increased ten-fold. We had him and his company, Circus Mojo, come in to lead my company's quarterly team building exercises. Normally we go golfing, or plan some kind of function that everyone enjoys, but this time we had people spinning plates, rolling around the rooms in giant wheels, juggling, and demonstrating feats of balance. Everyone had fun. Unlike many of our previous events that focused primarily on relaxation, it was immediately evident that our employees felt closer together as a team. The exercises we participated in stressed the importance of inter-reliance, as well as having a good time. I would highly recommend Paul and Circus Mojo to any business that is looking for a unique and effective way to improve teamwork in the workplace. Thanks Paul!"

EVENT PRODUCTION

"Circus Mojo held a staff development in-service for my staff. With laughter, out-of-the-box thinking and encouragement, the Mojo team helped everyone develop greater rapport, trust and confidence in one another. The combination of circus tricks and activities created new partnerships and new possibilities."
